1. Policy Overview

Customer Rights Policy 2023-24 explains about the rights a customer acquires during an evolving business relationship with the Bank. The policy also characterizes the responsibilities of Bank towards its customers in service delivery.

The policy is applicable to all the products and services offered to customers irrespective of the service delivery channel.

The policy envisages that a customer should be dealt fairly, sympathetically and all the dealings with the Bank are done in an honest and transparent manner. The policy also advises to communicate all terms, conditions, pricing & features of a product/ service, location of the service outlets, policies, and marketing & promotional material, etc., in clear and unambiguous language.

The policy also lays down the principles for offering a suitable product and mandates adherence to all statutory guidelines to protect the interest of the Bank and its customers. The policy also expects the highest level of privacy in maintaining customer's personal information irrespective of business relationship.

In traversing the policy principles, the customer has been conferred the right to escalate and get his grievance redressed in a timely and fair manner without demur. The policy will be effective from 01.04.2023 and valid up to 31.03.2024

2. Policy Details

2.1 Background:

Customer Rights Policy identifies the intrinsic rights a customer gets during and after termination of his banking relationship. The policy also defines the ways to deal honestly and fairly with a customer.

The policy is based on the guiding principles enlisted in the RBI "Master Circular on Customer Service in Banks" circulated vide RBI/2015-16/59/DBR No.Leg.BC.21/09.07.006/2015-16 dated 1st July 2015.

2.2 Objective:

The policy also aims to create a fair and conducive environment for its customers in obtaining satisfactory Customer Services through the various Banking channels.

The Customer Rights Policy enshrines basic rights of the customers of the Bank regulated by the Reserve Bank of India. It spells out the rights of the customer and also the responsibilities of the bank.

2.3 Scope and Applicability:

The Policy applies to all products and services offered by the bank or its agents, whether provided across the counter, over phone, by post, through interactive electronic devices, on internet or by any other method.

2.4 Policy Contents:

2.4.1. Right to Fair Treatment

Both the customer and the Bank have a right to be treated with courtesy. The customer should not be unfairly discriminated against on grounds such as gender, age, religion, caste and physical ability when offering and delivering financial products.

In pursuance of the above Right, bank will -

- 2.4.1.1. Promote good and fair banking practices by setting minimum standards in all dealings with the customers;
- 2.4.1.2. Promote a fair and equitable relationship between the bank and the customer;
- 2.4.1.3. Train bank staff attending to the customers, adequately and appropriately;
- 2.4.1.4. Treat all customers fairly and not discriminate against any customer on grounds such as gender, age, religion, caste, literacy, economic status, physical ability, etc. Bank may, however, have special schemes or products which are specifically designed for members of a target market group or may use defensible, commercially acceptable economic rationale for customer differentiation. Bank may also have schemes or products as part of an affirmative action such as for women or backward classes. Such schemes / products will not tantamount to unfair discrimination. The rationale for such special schemes or terms will be explained by bank wherever required;
- 2.4.1.5. Ensure that staff members attend to customers and their business promptly and courteously;
- 2.4.1.6. Ensure that the above principle is applied while offering all products and services;
- 2.4.1.7. Ensure that the products and services offered are in accordance with relevant laws and regulations;
- 2.4.1.8. Ensure to enhance customer awareness of their rights, particularly among hitherto marginalized customers, financially illiterate and semi-illiterate sections of the society by making available the pictorial presentation of basic rights contained in the code of Bank's commitment to customers
- 2.4.1.9. Promote Safe and Fair customer dealing in case of banking in a digital environment.
- 2.4.1.10. For senior citizens, more than 70 years of age, and differently abled or infirm persons (having medically certified chronic illness or disability) including those who are visually impaired, concerted efforts will be made to provide door step banking for basic banking facilities, such as pick up of cash and instruments against receipt, delivery of demand drafts, submission of KYC documents and Life Certificate at the premises/ residence of such customers.

While it shall be the endeavor of the bank to provide their customers with hassle free and fair treatment, bank would expect their customers to behave courteously and honestly in their dealings with the bank.

It shall also be the bank's endeavor to encourage their customers to approach the Bank's Internal Grievance Redressal machinery and approach alternate Grievance Redressal Mechanism, only after exhausting all their remedies under Bank's Internal Grievance Mechanism.

2.4.2. Right to Transparency, Fair and Honest Dealing

The Bank will make every effort to ensure that the contracts or agreements it frames are transparent, easily understood by and well communicated to the common person. The product's price, the associated risks, the terms and conditions that governs use over the product's life cycle and the responsibilities of the customer and the Bank will be clearly disclosed. The customer will not be subject to unfair business or marketing practices, coercive contractual terms or misleading representations. Over the course of their relationship, the Bank cannot threaten the customer with physical harm, exert undue influence or engage in blatant harassment.

In pursuance of the above Right, the bank will -

- 2.4.2.1. Ensure complete transparency so that the customer can have a better understanding of what he or she can reasonably / fairly expect from the bank;
- 2.4.2.2. Ensure that the bank's dealings with the customer rest on ethical principles of equity, integrity and transparency;
- 2.4.2.3.
